Art Unit: 1636

Applicant's election without traverse of Group I, claims 1-21, in the reply filed on 27 April 2005 is acknowledged.

Claims 22-45 are withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b) as being drawn to a nonelected invention, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Election was made without traverse in the reply filed on 27 April 2005.

The drawings are objected to because Figure 32A is mislabeled as 31A. Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities:

The Brief Description of the Drawings is incomplete. First, Figures 27-32 lack any descriptions. Second, Figures 23 and 24 consist of panels A and B each, but there is no indication of this in the Brief Description of each.

Appropriate correction is required.

Claims 2, 3, 5-11 and 17-19 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 1 and 12-16 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 44 and 46 of U.S. Application Serial No. 10/225,446, as follows: instant claims 1 and 12-15 over copending claim 44; and instant claim 16 over copending claim 46. An obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but an examined application claim not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the instant claims are generic to all that is recited in the respective claims of the patent, i.e., the patented claims fall entirely within the scope of each of the respective instant claims.

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 4, 12-16, 20 and 21 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Instant claim 4 recites “the gasket”. However, there is no antecedent basis for this phrase.

Instant claims 12-16 each recite “the resistance of the flow channel”. However, while “thermal resistance” is recited in claim 1 from which each of the instant claims depends, there is also recitation of electrical components, which have the property of electrical resistance. As such, the term “resistance” might be understood to refer to either, rendering unclear the metes and bounds of the instant claims.

Instant claims 20 and 21 are both set forth as a “device (“flow electroporation device”) wherein the device is arranged” with respect to “a second, like device.” However, if the metes and bounds of the claim, as it depends from claims 17 and ultimately 1, is the “device”, then the recitation of connection to another device renders unclear the metes and bounds of the claim, since the combination of both devices does not fit within the scope of a single device of the recited type. Stated otherwise, it is not clear if the claim is drawn to one such device, or to the combination of two such devices.
